Sauley Hughes, of Lancaster, and Miss Annie Francis, of the New Hope section of Madison, will be married Wednesday morning.

Miss Jernie McKinney, of Kentucky, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. D. Kennedy, in this city, was quietly married at high noon at the home of her cousin, Mr. H. G. Cook, to Mr. Andrew Jerry Adams, a leading merchant of Hustonville. They were attended by Miss Frances Adams, of Hustonville; Miss Mary D. Kennedy, of Stanford; Miss Nancy B. Kennedy, of this city, and Mr. John Sidney Adams, of Birmingham, Ala. The bride who is exceedingly handsome, was gowned in white lingerie cloth with point lace trimming, carrying white carnations with maiden hair fern. The ceremony which was beautiful and impressive was performed by Rev. Leroy G. Henderson, of the Central Presbyterian church. Many handsome and useful presents were received. Mrs. Kennedy entertained the bridal party on Tuesday evening when dainty and delicious refreshments were served. The bride and groom left immediately after the ceremony for an extended tour of the south but will be at home to their many friends at Hustonville after July 1.—Knoxville Sentinel.

SUGGESTIVE.

"O beautiful, royal Rose,
O Rose, so fair and sweet!
Queen of the garden art thou,
And I the clay at thy feet!"

Forever! Forever!

Ah, can it be?

I must think of thee, never,
Thou art lost to me!

My loyal lover,

In the Springtime fleet;

Is it all, all over,

Love's dream so sweet?

My loyal lover,

Ah, none like you

In the wide world over—

So good and true;

Aye, dearest and best,

And—can it be

In the crucial test,

Thou wert false to me?

My loyal lover

The gulf so wide

Though 'twere bridged over,

Must still divide.

Across, I whisper,

This plaint to thee;

For in dreams thou'rt ever

Still true to me.

Deadly Serpent Bites

are as common in India as are stomach and liver disorders with us. For the latter however there is a sure remedy: Electric Bitters the great restorative medicine, of which S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "They restored my wife to perfect health, after years of suffering with dyspepsia and a chronically torpid liver." Electric Bitters cure chills and fever, malaria, biliousness, lame back, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. Sold on Guarantee by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Price 50c.

Fifty houses were wrecked between Lawton, Okla., and Quanah, Texas, by a heavy windstorm. A passenger train near Lawton was nearly blown from the track.

W. R. Ward, of Dyersburg, Tenn., writes: "This is to certify that I have used Orlon Laxative Fruit Syrup for chronic constipation, and it has proven without a doubt, to be a thorough, practical remedy for this trouble, and it is with pleasure I offer my conscientious reference." G. L. Penny.

A new concern, organized for the production of American and foreign dramas and musical plays, has been formed in New York with a capital of $250,000.

If your stomach troubles you do not conclude that there is no cure, for a great many have been permanently cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Get a free sample at W. N. Craig's drug store and give them a trial. They also cure constipation and biliousness.

KIDDS' STORE.

Mr. Robinson, of Liberty, has opened a smithy as successor to Enoch Grubbs. Shippers credit this neck o' the woods the best lambs they have bought in the county.

A distressing form of indigestion and mild type of cholera morbus have been prevalent for some time.

Barney Leigh has moved to his farm on West Fork of Carpenter's creek and Dickey Reed has moved to town.

Farmers are having a tough tussle with weeds, especially tobacco growers, but a few more favorable days will see them winners.

Miss Maggie Stagg, of Stanford, is with relatives here. Foster McAlister, wife and sister, of Mississippi, were with their relatives here.

Our community sends greetings and congratulations to Jerry Adams, of Hustonville, who went to Knoxville and brought back home a capital prize won in a lottery.

George Bowling and George Russell, brothers-in-law and joint house-holders, were the victims of a defective kitchen flue a few mornings since and lost all kitchen furniture but saved the remainder of their effects.

Our blackberry bushes and peach trees give promise of a greater profusion of juicy cobblers than have blessed us since childhood we began reading of embalmed beef and political graft.

Mrs. Lizzie Shultz, nee Breckinridge, and baby, Louis, of Peoria, Ill., left Saturday after a protracted visit to relatives. Henry McKinney has, admitted by all, a finer melon patch than was ever grown in this end of the county. Hudson Bohon was a warmly welcomed home-comer after a six months' visit to his brother in Illinois. His cousin, Cecil Bohon, of Decatur, Ill., came with him to spend the summer.

Soon after retiring, an enthusiastic poultry woman was aroused by the frantic cries of her young turkeys' foster mother and rushing to the rescue found a snake gorging on one that was large as a full grown quail. It had been a comforting delusion that snakes are strictly day-light operators though given to evil deeds. Another lady was shocked to discover she had dispatched a young rattle snake which had been nooning under the shade of her banch beans.

Many home-comers who needed identification by most of their old comrades have visited us. As I drove along the pike last Sunday morning with a patriarchal friend we unexpectedly came on his boyhood chum whom he had last seen a quarter of a century ago. The old boys are both happy on "borrowed time" and rushed into each other's arms with hale and very slow haste, unable to utter a word as they hugged and stared in each other's streaming eyes. When enough composed to articulate their greetings, reminiscences flowed in torrents and they were the veriest boys in their delight.

The 19th was a gala day at old Harrodsburg and the wenders found open arms and fervent welcome. One son had been away 60 years; another 49. The former had come from remotest California, the latter from Colorado. One daughter had come from Honolulu and to stay, else she would have been given the long distance prize. A thunder storm was a slight damper on the thousands assembled. Col. A. W. Rucker, of Colorado, and Rev. Martin D. Hardin, of Virginia, eloquent sons of Mercer, were literal spellbinders. The good women of the county furnished a banquet, of which buggy loads were left after all were seated. Nothing short about old Mercer except selfishness.

They servant was impelled to Harrodsburg last week by the home-coming bacillus and is happy in possession of souvenirs he hopes may many years recall delightful greetings. I met one old friend I had not seen since '58. In '64 a mutual friend informs me where he was hiding in Louisville, where he was hidden by Gen. John Morgan. When I called at the room that night Bob had skipped. Shortly after a Federal soldier told me he had seen Bob in the crush on Fourth Street and that he refused to speak or even recognize him. Bob knew him but couldn't risk his neck on the generosity which he could scarcely hope. But Billy Rowden never betrayed Bob Davis and was genuinely grieved that his old friend avoided him, declaring to me: "Bob ought to have known that I'd have died before I'd betray him." One of Bob's comrades was less fortunate. Either detected or betrayed, the scaffold on which he died was within half a block of my boarding house.

Death From Lockjaw

never follows an injury dressed with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent blood poisoning. Chas. Oswald, merchant, of Rensselaerville, N. Y., writes: "It cured Seth Burch, of this place, of the ugliest sore on his neck I ever saw." Cures Cuts, Wounds, Burns and Sores. 25c at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue.

When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.

At least 10 or 12 of these reptiles have been seen at one time crawling on the walls, floor and steps of the dwelling.

Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.

THE monumental liar seems to have located for a while at least at Fort Worth, Texas. This is one of his fabrications: Myriads of rabbits are causing the Southern Pacific Railway Company trouble west of San Antonio. It is exceedingly dry in that region and the rabbits are attracted to the railway right of way in search of food at night. The electric lights in use on the engines seem to draw them, and they are run over and killed by the thousands. In some instances so many have been killed as to seriously impede progress of the trains.

EDITOR PICKLES, of the Richmond Register, seems to be a versatile fellow. He can not only turn out interesting paragraphs and write a "heavy weight" editorial, but is a dancer of ability as well. We notice that he and his accomplished wife led the German at the opening ball at Estill Springs, and we'll wager it was done to perfection.

GOV. BECKHAM, who has made a model governor, has announced his candidacy for U. S. Senator. If elected to the Senate and he fills that office as acceptably as he has the gubernatorial chair, no voter will have cause to regret having cast his ballot for the gallant young Statesman.

President Roosevelt has decided to visit the Isthmus of Panama next fall to make a personal inspection of the canal work. He will leave Washington late in October or early in November and will spend at least a week in the canal zone. In view of this decision his proposed tour of the Middle West has been declared off.

Gov. Beckham appointed John M. Lassing judge of the court of appeals to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Judge Thomas H. Painter to the United States Senate. Judge Lassing will retire from the democratic State central and executive committees and Louis Des Cognets, of Lexington, is mentioned as his successor.

Col. John B. Thompson was at his home here the first of the week, and to The Democrat he said that he would probably enter the race for Senatorship, though he had not yet fully determined to do so. He hinted that he would make it very warm for Gov. Beckham and Senator McCreary should he get into the contest. Harrodsburg Democrat.

Our fair officials let the contract last week to Morse & McKinley for building the amphitheater for the coming exhibition, the capacity of which will be greatly extended for the purpose of accommodating the much larger crowds than have heretofore attended. This exhibition will mark an epoch in the history of Lincoln county's fairs and will be a fitting tribute to the efforts of her experienced management, whose purpose is centered upon securing an attendance and giving an exhibition second to none in this section of the State.

I am requested by parties having the interest of the county and its roads at heart to call the attention of the proper authorities to the fact that a large crew of workmen near Mt. Salem are carrying stone to be crushed for the McKinney and Middleburg Pike that is nothing more than soap-stone. It is a gray shale that melts when exposed as shown at every out cropping, is easily crushed and almost worthless for road purposes. My informants are men of good judgment and say nothing but pure gray lime stone should be used and that the two years' appropriation due their road will not be sufficient to put it in proper condition.

A large crowd attended the Masonic picnic at Middleburg Saturday and in the afternoon a severe storm did much damage. Lightning struck three oak trees in the midst of the crowd, seriously injuring Ras Combest and a son of Al Royalty, killing a horse, knocking several ladies out of their vehicles, creating general consternation and making kindling wood of the trees. Emmett McCormack had a very close call, having just left one of the trees that was demolished. The storm also did considerable damage at Liberty, carrying off part of the roof of the Whipp Hotel, blowing down trees, burning out the telephone exchange and many other smaller casualties.

Monday evening the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler was the scene of one of the most enjoyable social functions ever given in Hustonville. Among the many entertaining features of the evening were the vocal solos by Mrs. Chas. Wheeler and Miss Lelia Wheeler and the piano solos of Master Francis Weatherford. FELAND.—Mr. Armpstead M. Feland, aged 86, died at his home Friday evening of a complication of troubles and was buried in Buffalo Cemetery Sunday afternoon after services at the grave by Rev. R. B. Mahony. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Mary Cooper, of Breckenridge county, and four sons and three daughters. They are Dr. John Feland, of Bath county, Mr. Feland, of Lawrenceburg, Mr. Wm. Feland, of the West, and Mr. Armp Feland, this place, Mrs. R. L. Berry and Misses Cooper and Adele Feland. Mr. Feland was one of Lincoln's oldest citizens and most of his long life had been spent in the county. He had always been an extensive farmer, but for one term he held the office of high sheriff. He made a good officer, but in those days the salary was small and he did not aspire to succeed himself, realizing that there was very little money in politics. A JURY is being secured in the case of William Kennedy for killing James Shupes, a German, in the East End some seven months ago. He and his brother, P. Faulkner Kennedy, were indicted for the killing but it was decided to try them singly. The defense is represented by Judge M. C. Saufley, George B. Saufley, Fontaine Fox Bobbitt and W. S. Burch, the latter having been engaged before he was elected county attorney. Hon. Harvey Helm is assisting Commonwealth's Attorney Hardin.

HUNG JURY.—The jury in the case of Robert E. Lee Sims for killing John R. Farris was given the case at 3:15 Friday afternoon and two hours later they reported that an agreement was impossible. Judge Bell held them over and at 8:30 Saturday morning another effort was made to reach an agreement, but without avail and when they again reported that they could not make a verdict, the judge discharged them. Six were for acquittal and six for conviction, three of the latter being for a life sentence, we understand. Five splendid speeches were made and the case was stubbornly fought from start to finish. This is the second hung jury in the case.

THURSDAY evening at their country home, Mr. and Mrs. Bedell Chancellor delightfully entertained in honor of their son, Mr. George Chancellor, of Cincinnati. The house was artistically decorated for the auspicious occasion and the large lawn brilliantly illuminated with Japanese lanterns, which presented a scene of beauty and happiness. Mr. Chancellor was assisted in receiving by Misses Ophelia and Anna Chancellor, Josephine Sandidge and Mr. Will Chancellor. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served, each guest holding a card with part of the name of a flower thereon, and a great deal of pleasure was afforded the visitors in finding the person who held the card containing the missing part of the flower's name. The following couples were present: A. L. Pence and Miss Lucy Miller Givens; J. W. Williams and Miss Kate Pence; George Hopper and Miss Mary McRoberts; Haynes Smith and Miss Josephine Sandidge; A. M. MARY ELIZABETH, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Furr, of the Flat Woods section of Garrard, died Sunday after a long illness. She was the idol of her parents, who are almost heartbroken over their loss.

MR. MARTIN, attorney for the L. & N. railroad, was here yesterday and made settlements with the administrators of Geo. V. Ponder, P. W. Tharp and Francis Weaver, the three Brodhead boys who were killed in a wreck in Louisville yards some weeks ago. The amount paid each was $5,000. - Mt. Vernon Signal.

FOUND CHICKENS.—Hartwell Shanks and Manse Mobley found a box containing 19 hens near Rowland a few days ago. Some rascal had evidently stolen the hens and hidden them with the hope of moving them at some more convenient time. They are at Hayden Shanks', at Rowland, and if your roost has been robbed lately you might profit by going down and seeing if some of the fowls are not your own.

PEARS.—Mrs. Elizabeth Pears, the aged mother of Mrs. Carrie Shelton, of Rowland, died suddenly at her home Saturday afternoon. The burial occurred in Buffalo Cemetery yesterday afternoon. She is survived by Mesdames Rebecca Burges, John McKee, Carrie Shelton and Arthur and William Pears. Mrs. Pears was a splendid Christian woman and her death carries sorrow to the hearts of all who knew her.

STOLE FLIES.—A few days ago Mr. M. D. Elmore wrapped up several sheets of fly paper, which had been used long enough to be full of flies, to take to his backyard up home and burn. After he had started home he had to go back into his store and he laid the package on a box near the door until he returned. When he came out the package was gone, some thief having appropriated it. Imagine the rascal's feelings when he opened the bundle and found "sticky" fly paper and thousands of flies.

CARTER.—Mr. Jesse Carter, one of the best old gentlemen in the West End, died a few days ago of infirmities attendant on old age. The remains were laid to rest in the McCormack's church grave yard after services by Eld. J. Q. Montgomery. Mr. Carter is survived by only one child—Mr. Richard Carter, of Lebanon. His wife died a number of years ago. He lived an honorable, upright life but it was only a few weeks ago that he made a profession of religion and united with the Christian church. He was a very popular man and his many friends are grieved that he has been taken away from earthly scenes.

SOME 50 couples attended the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. John S. Those who entertained were Misses Pattie and Sotie Alcorn, Dollie McRoberts and Mrs. Sue Yeager. Miss Mary McRoberts presided at the frappe bowl. Games, etc., were enjoyed and later in the evening delightful refreshments were elegantly served. It was a most enjoyable occasion and one

The secret of the late Sysonby's wonderful speed and stamina was disclosed at the autopsy performed on the great colt shortly after his death. It was found that his kidneys and lungs were twice as large as those organs in an ordinary horse. No wonder he had extraordinary wind and reserve force. He was completely sound of wind and limb at the time of death. Had he recovered from the disease it is believed that he would have been lame. Sysonby suffered intense pain and the attending veterinaries say it was the most violent case on record. Septic poisoning is what killed the great racer. He was literally eaten up with the eruption, his feet, his tail, his nose and ears being affected. Sysonby's death is a great loss to the breeding world, and it may be some years before his equal is produced.

The census of 1900 shows that, with a little over 5,000,000 farms in the United States, not much over 6,600,000 turkeys were produced. Among the States Texas is in the lead, having produced almost 650,000 turkeys. Following Texas come Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Ohio and Indiana, in the order named. The State of Rhode Island produced less than 5,000 turkeys. It may be remarked, however, that if all the turkeys were of such good quality as those produced in Rhode Island, their value would be nearly doubled and they would return correspondingly greater profits to the growers. Rhode Island turkeys sold at retail in the markets of New York City and Boston during Thanksgiving and holiday weeks as high as 38 and 40 cents a pound, while other turkeys could be bought at 20 and 25 cents. This gives some idea of the willingness of people to pay a good price for the best.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.

Mr. M. F. Borroughs, an old and well-known resident of Bluffton, Ind., says: "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble. I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.
